GENSLER

Gensler is a global architecture, design and planning firm with 50 locations and more than 6000 professionals networkingacross the world. Founded in 1965, the firm serves more than 3500 active clients in virtually every industry. Gensler supports clients at every stage of the design cycle. In 2019 Bulo and Gensler teamed up to design this lounge collection. Monica and Lucca are quintessential Bulo. Both timeless and contemporary, they feel at home in different interiors. Classical woodworking and upholstery is combined with state-of-the-art production techniques.

Lucca

Lucca is quintessential Bulo. Both timeless and contemporary, he feels at home in different interiors. Lucca is a convenient side table that also explores duality. With a simple click- and pull system the height of this laptop table can be adjusted to either 470 or 670 mm. To adjust the height the handle slides into a metal beam, which is a unique technique. Also available with a fixed height of 470 mm. All mentioned heights are table top heights and exclude the height of the handle.
